Climbing is intrinsically personal. We are all unique, with our own goals and ambitions, our individual strengths and weaknesses. Whilst Camp5 courses and clinics are an excellent way to learn the fundamentals, adapting new skills often requires more personal, focused instruction.

Camp5 facilitates both in-house and freelancing coaches; all with our recommendation. The coaches are approved based on their portfolio of personal and professional experience. Many have competed internationally and sent routes beyond 8a grade.

Private coaches work independently. Bookings, enquiries and schedules are coordinated directly between client and coach. Camp5 does however apply terms and conditions, see reverse side for details.

Clients aged 12 and older must be a registered Camp5 member with minimum Top-roping ability.
